About Travelnitch:

Travelnitch is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit inspiring little explorers through virtual and real-world travel. We believe travel can change lives, open minds, and build a stronger sense of community. Our journey first began in 2018 and has since taken flight—our travel stories and virtual adventures now reach a global audience.

In the year ahead, we will be turning our focus to more locally-based initiatives, including travel writing workshops, family travel grants and the launch of our World on Wheels mobile book program. Funds raised through this event will support every effort to make the benefits of travel more accessible for families across Western Mass.
