

Doyli to the Rescue:

Saving baby monkeys in the Amazon

PRE-ORDERS BEGIN: 5/2/2022 | PUBLICATION DATE: 7/1/2022

About the Book

Join 10-year-old Doyli as she sets out to rescue orphaned monkeys from her island home in the Peruvian Amazon. With help from her family, Doyli nurtures them until they are strong enough to be released back into their natural habitat. Along the way, you'll see what life is like for young Doyli—helping prepare meals at home, rowing to school in her canoe, and being an everyday hero for endangered animals in the Amazon rainforest.

About the Author

Cathleen Burnham is a veteran author and photographer, specializing in wildlife and tribal peoples. She has travelled to over sixty countries covering stories about animal conservation, disappearing cultures, and women's rights. Her work has included stints at NBC, PBS, HBO and Fox.

Cathleen spends time each year tenting in the bush, tracking wild animals and immersing herself in traditional cultures. Her work has appeared in Cleveland Magazine, Rangelander, Creative Living, Metro Post newspapers, and her photography was even exhibited in The National Wildlife Museum. She was a wildlife rehabilitator for over twenty years, during which time she also sat on the board of The Nature Conservancy for Western New York.

Doyli to the Rescue is the first reprint in a series of inspiring stories highlighting wildlife conservation efforts by kids around the world.
